

Inter-Collegiate Competition on “Flaunt Our Goan Culture” organized to commemorate 60th Goa Liberation Day celebration.

SPES’s Goa Multi-Faculty College, Dharbandora-Goa, organized an Inter-Collegiate Competition on “Flaunt Our Goan Culture” to commemorate 60th Goa Liberation Day Celebration for the students of various colleges in the State. This competition was envisaged to keep the Goan Culture alive in the hearts of students and to showcase various aspects of Goan Culture, Heritage and its history. The competition was organised on virtual mode.

The competition received overwhelming response with total 17 entries from 10 different colleges across Goa. The contestants showcased the unique aspects of their culture through their attire and expressed their views. All participants performed well to showcase their talents. The efforts and hardwork of the participants were highly commendable.

The Competition was judged by three renowned judges. The first judge was Mrs. Sneha R. Khot, Classical Bharatnatyam Dancer and she also owns Sneha’s Dance Academy. The second judge was Mr. Raviraj C. Naik, an acclaimed Singer, Artist & Film Maker and the third judge was Mr. Narayan Kharade, Theatre Artist, who directs plays/drama, & is also presently pursuing P.h.D in Theatre Arts. The pictures were judged on the basis of attire which was relevant to the theme, views and presentations.

On 19th December 2020, After the Flag Hoisting Ceremony, the Winners of the Competition were announced by Mrs. Siddhi S. Kanolkar, Head Mistress of Govt.
