Ms. Swati Shantaram Naik, from GMFC won 2nd place in All Goa online Poster Making Competition organised by Goa State AIDS Control Society

12th August is celebrated as an International Youth day every year. The theme for this year was “Youth Engagement for Global Action”. On this occasion, in order to create awareness about HIV and AIDS among the youth, the Goa State AIDS Control Society organised an All Goa Online Poster Making Competition with Theme “Youth and HIV/AIDS”, where they invited participation from various colleges all over Goa. Red Ribbon Club of S.P.E.S’s Goa Multi-Faculty College, conducted a preliminary Inter-Class Online Poster Making

Competition on the same topic out of which the poster of Ms. Swati Shantaram Naik, student from First Year B.Com. was nominated as official entry of the college. When results were declared she won the second place at the All Goa Level along with a cash reward of Rs 3000/-. The Convenor Ms. Kalpita Naik, and Assistant Professor Ms. Sandhya Joseph from the Red Ribbon Club supervised the event.
