WEBINAR ON INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

Goa Multi-Faculty College, Dharbandora Goa organised a webinar on "Introduction to Intellectual Property Rights" in association with the HR Club and the IQAC cell of the college on 21st October 2020. Mr. Subasish Mohanty, Assistant Professor in Commerce was the Convenor for the National Level Webinar, along with Mr. Ajit Faras, Mr. Shubham Naik and Ms. Ravina Matkar as Program Co-ordinators. Dr. Shruti M. Nadkarni, Assistant Professor, Govind Ramnath Kare College of Law, Margao was invited to deliver the session as the Resource Person.

The program kick started at 3.15 pm with Mr. Subasish Mohanty welcoming the Guests and Introducing the Resource Person. The session was later handed over to resource person. In her talk, Dr. Shruti talked about Intellectual Property Rights where she made it very easy for the participants to understand the basics of IPR using real life examples of Coca-Cola Company, Basmati rice and Turmeric cases. The webinar was hosted through Google Meet platform and it witnessed an activate participation of around 85 participants who were from Uttar Pradesh, Gujarat, Odisha and Goa. After the talk, the session was opened to the participants for question and answers and doubt solving, where participants' questions were handled by the guest.

The program came to an end at around 4.45 PM with Ms. Ravina Matkar proposing vote of thanks, where she thanked the Principal of Goa Multi-Faculty College, Managing Committee of the College, Resource Person, Participants, the organising committee and all the teaching and non-teaching staff of the College.

The organising committee would like to extend its gratitude to the principal Prof. (Dr.) Shaikh Mohammad Parvez Al Usmani for giving an opportunity to organise the webinar as a part of compliance to KAPILA initiative by the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India to mark the birth anniversary of our beloved ex-president Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam.
